

OKCMAR Leadership Tomorrow Participant Requirements

Congratulations on taking a winning step towards developing your leadership skills by showing an interest in the OKCMAR Leadership Tomorrow Program (LT7)!

OKCMAR, and the founders of this program, have worked hard to provide valuable skills that will benefit you throughout your professional, personal and community interactions. This includes learning about how important everyone's involvement is in the Oklahoma Metropolitan Association of REALTORS® (OKCMAR) as well as Oklahoma Association of REALTORS® (OAR) and the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission (OREC).

Our Mission: Identify select REALTOR® candidates within OKCMAR to foster leadership development and involvement.

Our Vision: To be a trusted source of leader members within OKCMAR to guide our profession forward.

Our Values: Integrity, to continue to live out the REALTOR® pledge and Code of Ethics. Innovation, to explore and recognize new leadership building activities thru OKCMAR.

Professional Photo – Participants will have a professional photo taken. This will be used in the LT7 wall plaque and other OKCMAR events. (You may alternatively submit one for use).

Session Attendance – Participants are required miss no more than one other required session.

Committee Participation – Participants who are not on a current OKCMAR committee will sign up for a committee of their choice for 2016.

Community Service Project – Participants will select, organize and complete a community service project during the program year (Examples of past projects will be provided for reference). This project should also bring value to OKCMAR.

By signing this document you agree to commit to the OKCMAR Leadership Program requirements above and that all confidential information exchanged shall be kept confidential and shall not be shared outside meetings.
